OUR LADY OF CANDELARIA

Our Catholic Faith presents us with many devotions. Our Hispanic Community will bring a new one to us when they welcome a statue of Our Lady Of Candelaria at the Sunday 5pm Mass on June 11th. Our Lady of Candelaria was first brought to a small town in Mexico named Quitupan in the state of Jalisco. She was brought there by Franciscan Missionaries who would carry an image of Our Lady in a small case while they ministered to people in several towns and regions. Eventually they worked their way up to Jiquilpan, Michoacan in Mexico.

One day, after arriving in a town named San Antonio, the Franciscans opened the case that they used to carry the icon of Mary in, and found that it was empty. Worried and confused by this, they went back to Quitupan, where their journey had begun. To their amazement they found the icon of Our Blessed Mother in the exact spot that they had first placed her. This happened multiple times until the Franciscans realized that the icon of Our Lady of Candelaria wanted to stay with the natives of Quitupan.

The image of Mary, as Our Lady of Candelaria, holds the infant Jesus in one hand and a candle in the other. Although the Mass, Rosary and prayers will be in Spanish, anyone who is interested in attending and experiencing this devotion, which will be new to most of us, is most welcome.
